

ENABLE 2015

ENABLING CHILDREN IN THE EARLY YEARS

THURSDAY 5TH NOVEMBER 2015

ENABLE 2015 is a visionary conference designed to bring together leading experts to provide actionable insights for early years professionals.

The conference aims to introduce various pedagogical approaches, highlighting the valuable work being undertaken across the sector.

Delegates will be provided with opportunities to explore holistic development from alternative perspectives, to learn from leading experts working on a wide range of intervention programs, and to network with other professionals and leaders from a broad variety of disciplines.

Barbara Isaacs

Gina Davies

Dr. Rachel Drury

Rabbi Rafi Feuerstein

Monika Jephcott

Dame Donna Kinnair

Martin Pace

Dr. Gavin Reid

Michael Rosen

Leslee Udwin

INCLUSION - INNOVATION - INSPIRATION - INTEGRATION

"We look forward to a comprehensive, motivating, and inspiring event, providing professionals working in the early years with strategies to transform their current practice, thereby enabling them to enable the children in their care."

Helen Lumgair – Founder, The Educationalist

FACILITATED BY THE TEAMS AT:

EVENTFUL

THE EDUCATIONALIST

Providing holistic educational solutions for families

Register your place today at www.enableearlyyears.com

ENABLE 2015

ENABLING CHILDREN IN THE EARLY YEARS

THURSDAY 5TH NOVEMBER 2015

Renowned Montessorian Barbara Isaacs will discuss encouraging children's independence through fostering initiative and supporting challenge and Monika Jephcott, the head of Play Therapy UK, will explain the workings of play therapy through the exploration of prevention and healing in the lives of children.

Leslee Udwin, director of acclaimed film East is East and galvanizing documentary India's Daughter, will present her vision for a new Equality Studies Global Initiative in partnership with the UNHRC which will roll out with a compulsory curriculum for the early years.

Experienced speech and language therapist Gina Davies will examine how best to engage learners with autistic spectrum disorder and Dr. Rachel Drury, Creative and Contextual Studies Lecturer at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, will explore the non-musical impact of music with specific regard to health, wellbeing and development. The Feuerstein Institute's Rabbi Rafi Feuerstein will lecture on the modifiability of intelligence and delegates will be advised on the power of integrated practice in safeguarding children by Dame Donna Kinnair.

Martin Pace, Director of Reflections Nursery, will introduce participants to the setting's approach to forest school and risk in children's play, drawing inspiration from Reggio Emilia and Danish pre-schools.

Dr. Gavin Reid will provide delegates with strategies to support young children with dyslexia in the early years and Michael Rosen, author and poet, will talk to conference participants about fostering curiosity in the lives of young learners.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Head Teachers, Deputy Heads
- Heads of Primary/Early Years
- Parents of children with SEN
- SENCO's
- Classroom Teachers
- Special Needs Teachers
- Teaching Assistants
- Learning Support Assistants
- Early Years Professionals
- Directors of Children's Services
- Local Authority Educational Professionals
- Nursery Managers
- Speech and Language Therapists
- Occupational Therapists
- Play Therapists
- Students

TICKET PRICES

Early registration (book by 05.09.15)

£199.50 + VAT

Standard registration

£229.50 + VAT

Each ticket includes lunch, mid-morning and mid-afternoon tea & coffee.

SECURE YOUR TICKETS

We would advise that interested delegates book early to avoid disappointment. Our early registration price applies to bookings received before the 5th of September.

Register your place today at www.enableearlyyears.com